FOREWORD

The staff of the Maroon of '51
Was chiefly concerned from the start
With presenting a memorable yearbook
In which you were a definite part.

We tried to embody our traditions,
The old spirit of Atlanta High,
So that these days of laughter and study
Would live again when they've gone by.

May these pictures of friends and of teachers,
Of our high school, activities, and fun
Reflect all your happiest minutes
In this year 1951.

THE STAFF

MISS VIRGINIA FLANAGAN

MRS. JOE McCLUNG

DEDICATION

To the Maroon Jackets of 1950 whose loyalty, enthusiasm, and tirelessness have added so greatly to Atlanta High School's ever-present school spirit,

And to Mrs. Joe McClung, the firecracker back of this colorful organization, and Miss Virginia Flanagan, her dependable and understanding assistant,

We proudly dedicate the 1951 Maroon.

Dear Friends:

It is with much pride that I have had the pleasure of working with such congenial and cooperative groups as the faculty, the student body, the Board of Education, and the community that composes our most progressive school district.

I wish to congratulate the members of the staff, sponsor, and others for their untiring efforts in producing this fine yearbook.

Your friend,

B.H. Hudspeth

MRS. JOE McCLUNG

Mrs. Joe McClung, Joan Talley, Shirley Brabham, Charles Hughes, and Billy Mays attended regional meet where the girls' team defeated Mt. Pleasant to become regional champions and the boys' team won the championship by defeating Mt. Pleasant and Overton. At the state interscholastic meet in May, 1950, Charles and Billy went to the quarter-finals. Joan and Shirley went to the finals where they defeated a team from Hillcrest in Dallas. Along with their medals and silver cup, these girls brought home Atlanta's first state championship in debate.

Earlier in the year, these teams attended debate tournaments at Baylor and S.M.U. where the boys won two and lost two and the girls went to the semi-finals.

These teams were coached by Mrs. Joe McClung who has carried teams to state meet several times, along with other speech entries which she has coached.

Atlanta 26, Mineola 6

The Atlanta Rabbits opened their 1950 schedule in a big way by defeating the troublesome Mineola Yellowjackets 26-6. It was sweet revenge for the two losses the Rabbits had suffered a year previous. The Yellowjackets scored first, but Atlanta retaliated almost immediately as Stanley Cruse scored the first Rabbit T.D., and the Rabbits led 7-6 at the half.

The Rabbits iced the game in the last half as Musgrove, Jackson, and Teague scored touchdowns. The Atlanta forward wall kept the Yellowjackets helpless throughout the last half.

Game Captains: Stanley Cruse and Wayne Echols.

Atlanta 40, Gilmer 7

The Rabbits defeated Gilmer to the tune of 40-7 as Cruse led the Rabbits by scoring 24 points. Bobby Dodd and Teague followed with a T.D. each. Charles Musgrove kicked two extra points and passed to Bass and Billy Dodd for two more. Outstanding linemen were Echols, Spears, and McConnell.

Game Captains: Hub McConnell and Bobby Dodd.

Atlanta 13, Mt. Pleasant 27

A terrific ground attack and two costly fumbles were the chief reasons for the Rabbits' first 1950 defeat.

A pass from Charles Musgrove to full-back Bobby Dodd counted for the first score early in the first quarter. Dodd tallied again after the half and Musgrove passed to James Bass for the extra point.

Outstanding linemen were McConnell, Spears, and Harold Musgrove. In the backfield were Hughes, Charles Musgrove, and Bobby Dodd.

Game Captains: Charles Musgrove and Bobby Teague.

Atlanta 6, Mt. Vernon 21

The Mt. Vernon Tigers handed the Rabbits their second straight defeat by blasting to a 21-6 victory. The Tigers scored mid-way in the first period, but The Rabbits fought back and scored their lone T.D. a few minutes later when Ernest Jackson connected with a short pass from Charles Musgrove. The Tigers scored once more before the half, and the Rabbits left the field on the short end of a 14-6 score. The Rabbits fought stubbornly the entire last half of play, but failed to score while the Tigers pushed across one more tally. The second half featured several goal line stands by the Rabbit forward wall.

Game Captains: Bobby Teague and Charles Musgrove.

Atlanta 21, Hooks 0

The Atlanta Rabbits opened their 1950 district play at Hooks by defeating the Hornets 21-0. However, the Hooks eleven gave the Rabbits several anxious moments during the first half. The first period was scoreless, but Charles Hughes scored from the one and Charles Musgrove kicked the first of his three successful P. A. T.'s. The Rabbits led 7-0 at the half.

The third period was scoreless, but Harold Musgrove scored the second Rabbit T.D. early in the fourth. Bobby Teague rounded out the scoring as he went over the line for the third touchdown in the last few minutes of play.

Game Captains: Jerry Hufstetler, Stanley Cruse.

Atlanta 14, Clarksville 0

The Atlanta Rabbits won their second consecutive District 16-A contest by edging out the Clarksville Tigers 14-0.

The Rabbits scored first in the opening quarter when Harold Musgroves went over for a touchdown on a twelve yard run. The Rabbits held this thin margin until the last four minutes of play when Stanley Cruse raced forty-five yards for the second T.D.

Except for the two scoring drives the game was very evenly marched in almost every department. The lines were about equal and the Rabbits held only a slight advantage in the backfield.

Game Captains: Harold Musgrove, Clopton Stroud.

Atlanta 26, New Boston 18

The Rabbits got off to an early 13 point lead on T.D.'s by H. Musgrove and Mays, but the Lions came back strong and as the Rabbits left the field at half time the scoreboard read: New Boston 18, Atlanta 13. After a scoreless third period, early in the fourth quarter, Cruse stepped into the end zone to put the Rabbits ahead 19-13. Bobby Teague iced the game late in the last stanza as he intercepted a New Boston pass and turned it into 6 points. Outstanding for the Rabbits were Cruse, Teague, H. Musgrove, and Brown.

Game Captains: Bobby Dodd, Hub McConnell.

Atlanta 13, DeKalb 13

The Rabbits invaded the home of the favored DeKalb Bears and returned with a 13-13 tie. Atlanta held a 6-0 lead at half-time by virtue of a 55 yard dash by Stanley Cruse. The Bears were held in check the first two periods by the Rabbit forward wall.

But the Bears raced from behind and scored T.D.'s in the third and fourth periods. Things seemed hopeless as DeKalb had possession of the ball with only 30 seconds left to play. But Bobby Dodd proved to be the hero of the evening as he rushed in, blocked a DeKalb punt, and literally flew forty yards for a T.D. Charles Musgrove calmly kicked the extra point as the game ended. This marked one of the most sensational finishes seen by Rabbits fans in many years.

Game Captains: Stanley Cruse, Bobby Teague.

Atlanta 20, Jefferson 0

The Atlanta Rabbits moved much closer to a share of the District 16-A crown as they downed the stubborn Jefferson Bulldogs 20-0.

Jefferson Bulldogs 20 - 0

The Rabbits were never in trouble, but had to fight hard until the final whistle. Cruse led the Rabbits by scoring two touchdowns, and Harold Musgrove accounted for one. The Atlanta line, led by Wayne Echols and Hub McConnell, opened up large holes on offense, and held firm on defense throughout the game.

Game Captains: Charles Hughes, Sammy Ferguson, and Jerry Hufstetler.

Atlanta 30, Linden 13

The Atlanta Rabbits grabbed a share of the District flag as they trounced the Linden Tigers 30-13. The Rabbits bit the touchdown trail early in the first quarter and kept on it the remainder of the game. Mays reached the Promised Land twice and H. Musgrove, Cruse, and Eddie Hardin tallied one six-pointer each. Both Linden scores came in the fourth quarter. Outstanding linemen were Ferguson, Draper, Echols, Powell, and Hufstetler.

Game Captains: Jim Stanley, Joe Draper, and Billy Mays.

Atlanta 19, Mt. Vernon 37

The Rabbits came to the end of their trail for the 1950 season as the Mt. Vernon Tigers once again proved too much for them. Atlanta matched the Tigers touchdown for touchdown in the opening period, but trailed 28-12 at halftime. Charles Musgrove passed to Stanley Cruse in the end zone for the first Atlanta touchdown and Harold Musgrove went over from the one for the second tally. In the second period, Atlanta was held scoreless but Mt. Vernon pushed over two more touchdowns.

The Rabbits finished their scoring early in the third quarter as Cruse raced 85 yards on a brilliant run. The Tigers then took over and controlled the game as they scored two more touchdowns and a safety.

Game Captains: Stanley Cruse and Waylon Brown.

CANDIDATES FOR QUEEN

1950 HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL

The P. T. A. Halloween Carnival began with a bang in the Atlanta High School Auditorium with a hilarious program under the supervision of Mrs. Joe McClung and Mr. Thomas Lavin. The first event was a pie-eating contest in which blind-folded contestants ate chocolate pie. It was won by Russell Alexander and Merle Law. This was followed by a balloon blowing contest which proved Tommy Lavin to be the man with the most hot air. In a race against time, Wayne Echols won a gobble. The final event and highlight of the program was a male queen's contest won by Coach B. B. Lawson, the latest addition to the Atlanta cheer-leading crew.

Miss Gwendolyn Nichols was crowned Queen of the 1950 Halloween Carnival. After the program, Queen Gwendolyn reigned over the festivities in the gymnasium where she and her henchmen enjoyed refreshments at the booths sponsored by each class. The proceeds of the carnival will be used by the P. T. A. for projects in the school.

P. T. A.

The P. T. A. is an organization of parents and teachers in the interest of their most priceless possession, the child.

The Atlanta P. T. A. has a membership of 264 for the year 1950-51. Regular meetings are held every third Wednesday of each month, September to May inclusive, at 2:40 P.M. in the high school auditorium.

The theme for the program for 1950-51 was "We Build a World Child by Child". Special observances were Girl and Boy Scouts-Safety-Health-Citizenship and Founders Day. Once during the year an out of town speaker is heard. This year Dr. Clarence Webb of Shreveport, Louisiana spoke on "Community Building for Child Health".

The one big project of the P. T. A. is the annual Hallowe'en Carnival, which always results in plenty of fun, laughter, and money. The 1950-51 Carnival netted 810.66.

P. T. A. Officers for 1950-51 are:

President	-----	-Mrs. F. P. Ellis
Vice President	-----	Mrs. Joe Graham
Secretary	-----	Mrs. Norman Smith
Corres. -Secretary	-----	Mrs. Jerome Laden
Treasurer	-----	Mrs. Paul Burson
