ATLANTA HIGH SCHOOL

Here it is, at last! The 1980 Maroon. We proudly present it to you with the hope that you will enjoy it as much as we, the staff and sponsors, have enjoyed putting it together for you. After all, were it not for you, there would be no Maroon.

To our sponsors, Mrs. Caudle and Mrs. Pratt, a hardy thank you for your time and advice. We could not have done it without you.

Our thanks also to the administration, school personnel, and teachers for your cooperation in this endeavor.

Thank you, too, staff for your long hours and hard work.

The 1980 Maroon — LOOKING GOOD!

Quill And Scroll Inducts Five Members

QUILL AND SCROLL, a national honor society for journalism students at AHS, inducted five new members into the organization Wednesday in the high school library. The initiation was attended by several of the students' parents and a large contingent of AHS' Journalism students. At left, the president and two of last year's members assist in the induction. Those students at left are Stephen Schumann, Katherine Alday and Jan McCutchan-President. The initiates are, from right, Johnny Bailey, Rudy Don Dawson, Scott Melishko, Robin McWhorter and Cindy Wall. To become a member of the Quill and Scroll, a student must be in the upper one-third of his class and have done outstanding work in some phase of journalism. Sponsors for the organization are Miss Joann Ryther, Mrs. Elizabeth Cudde and Mrs. Jean Pratt. (Photos By Don Nelson)

Timmy Blizzard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Blizzard of Atlanta, was elected Future Farmers of America District Reporter at the district convention.

Future Farmers Busy Selling Fruit

Atlanta's Future Farmers of America chapter is busy selling boxes of fruit for an annual fruit sale to raise money for chapter activities.

Delivered by the FFA to the Texas Valley area will go shop materials, hamburger supper, and also busy sellers, as well as other FFA activities.

The young man indicated that he is in his third year in the FFA and has a natural interest in the organization as he has lived on a farm all his life.

He admits his Atlanta High instructors have inspired him to become an ag teacher in high school. "I plan to go to Texas A&M and become a teacher. I've become influenced by the good work of the instructors here.

"I like our own ag program at AHS as it offers various ag projects. The last few years I've earned money in the Cass County Fair Show. It will be held March 30 this year in Atlanta. I enjoy the fruit sale which helps money into the local chapter. I usually finish first or second in sales. I've already sold 500 boxes of fruit.

"What I really enjoy is going out to people's homes and working on plots, water and other animals. My main interest is cattle raising. My father raises cattle on his place."

Tonja Mock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Mock of Atlanta, was named Future Farmers of America sweetheart last week at Atlanta High.

The 16-year-old is a hard worker and an officer in the Future Teachers of America. Librarian, Ms. Mock enjoyed her time in the FFA and has shown her interest in the past.

She will receive a whole FFA jacket from the local chapter for her selection as sweetheart. She will compete at the FFA District Banquet in February in Tusculum against 12 other district sweethearts.
