Placemats

In gathering the material for this volume of the booklets the Staff has had one object in view, to give substance to each page and word of Michael Sadler. If you find any degree of enjoyment in reading these pages, the work of the Staff of Ministers has been truly light in a sense.

Dedication

W. W. Smith

It is with heartfelt appreciation of his worth-his splendid Christian leadership, his kindness and his firm yet gentle guidance of the youth in his care, and above all his very real interest in all that is best for us-that we sincerely dedicate this volume of The Longhorn to our Superintendent W. W. Smith.

It is with heartfelt appreciation of his work-his Christian leadership, his kindness and his firm yet gentle guidance of the youth in his care, and above all his very real interest in all that is best for us that we sincerely dedicate this volume of songs to our superintendent, W. W. Smith.

Superintendent's Message

Congratulations to the Staff and Sponsor for their work in producing the 1948 Longhorn. This book indicates the type work being done in our school of which we are justly proud.

As the years go by this annual will become increasingly valuable as it serves as a connecting link with the days of your youth.

To all of you, I wish to express my sincere appreciation for your splendid cooperation during the 1947-48 school year.

H. H. Smith

Supplemental Message

Organization of the Staff and Board
This will be presented in the 1944 Budget and indicates the steps being taken to bring about a more efficient organization of the staff and board.
In the future as the budget will be presented, it will be shown as a part of the budget of your year.
In all of this, I wish to express my appreciation for your splendid cooperation in the 1943 school year.

Principal's Message

The pride which is mine as I recall your work of this year is justified in numerous accomplishments of which this yearbook is significant; and my pride is pardonable because of the fact that your accomplishments are evidence of your cooperative interest and effort in your school. The spirit which prevails throughout the school is worthy of commendation.

I wish to express my gratitude for your wholesome attitudes toward your school, your community, your homes, and above all, your desire to develop for yourselves strong characters.

J.E. Aldridge

Private Message

The entire school is glad as I recall your visit of this year is qualified in numerous respects points of which this year has an exceptional record which is commendable because of the fact that your accomplishments are evidence of your exceptional talent and effort in your school. The spirit which prevails throughout the school is worthy of admiration.

I wish to express my gratitude for your visit and extend warmest regards to your school, your family, your home, and above all, your father in heaven.
For your own sake, please continue.

Special News Turned In By The Former Helen Miller

Ten years ago when we seniors of '48 bid our younger classmates adieu we made a solemn vow that at the end of a ten year period, which would be May 27, 1958, we would all meet back at the McLeod Drug-Grocery store which was then owned and operated by G. C. Coleman. All but one of us faithful seniors returned for this all-day meeting. Even though Nevaelene Hilliard was not with us we knew that her sincere desire was to be there, but since she had joined the Red Cross duty demanded that she aid the wounded of an earthquake in China.

Before I go farther it must be mentioned that the G. C. Coleman Drug and Grocery store, due to the founding of a new oil field, is now the Speer Grocery and Meat Market owned and operated by our classmate Donald Speer, who as you all know married Golden Hall in December of '47.

On my way down to this great meeting I caused a traffic jam at the corner of Main and Market and thought I would surely be put in jail but to my surprise and great relief I discovered that the traffic cop coming over to my car was none other than Billy Browning. He told me he would not be with us until later since he had to work that morning.

When I finally got there it seemed that no one had arrived but my old classmate Merlyn Waites whom I had not seen nor heard of since we parted in '48. After talking with her for a while I learned that she had changed her name shortly after she finished school and was now the mother of two lovely children. I then asked her about some of the others and she told me that Ruby Holland, who became Ruby Tollerson at Christmas before she graduated, was now a bookkeeper for the Phillips Oil Co. for it seemed that her husband, Pinkie, had decided to take an endless vacation.

Glancing down the street I saw the great new church that Reverend Paul Liles built. You can imagine my surprise when I heard that he had been converted and was now the pastor of this great church.

The radio in the store was turned on at the MCLT Broadcasting station and we heard the lovely voices of Thelma and Velma Adcock who were now making their daily broadcast. They planned to be with us later in the day.

I asked what happened to Bill Robinson and I was shocked to hear that instead of being a doctor as he had planned he was now the operator of the largest morgue in McLeod, of course he has a cute little strawberry blonde wife now. Thinking back I instantly remembered who it was.

Special Issue

Special Issue on the 50th Anniversary of the Wilson Daily

The Wilson Daily is celebrating its 50th anniversary. It is a milestone in the history of the town of Wilson, North Carolina. The paper was founded in 1870 by Dr. J. C. Wilson. It has since been owned and operated by Dr. J. C. Wilson's family. The paper has been a source of news and information for the community for over 80 years. It has covered the growth of the town and the lives of its people. The paper has been a witness to the changes in the town and the state. It has been a part of the community's history and its future.

At this time I walked Christine Sanders and Betty Howard both looking pretty as a picture for now they are the owners of the "Curls for Girls" Beauty Shoppe. Since Betty Jo is not one to be bossed around she is not married to W. L. as I thought she would have been. Christine always was choosy about men and it seems as if she is still "just looking."

When I began to wonder where Betty Davis was Donald told me that McLeod was too small a place for her since Gene, her husband, owned the largest lumber company in the United States. They had moved to New York but were coming in on the 11:55 special and would be with us for lunch.

Asking about Inez Wilcox I learned that she no longer goes by her old name Inez. She is now called Moonbeam Mable, for she is the leading dancer at the Starlight Night Club whose owner is none other than Charles Gryder. It seems he has reached this extreme height in society by a pair of loaded ivories.

Sarah Land and Barrie Faye Walton came in about the time and I learned that they had married brothers who jointly owned the largest service station and garage in McLeod.

To our surprise Dorothy Terry came in after returning from an evangelistic trip to Mexico. She took up this work shortly after he finished college.

Annie Hill came in but couldn't stay very long since her boss doesn't let her have but an hour for lunch. The work at the cleaners is rather rushed these days.

Katy Jean Wade is following in her sisters footsteps only she has gone farther by gaining the position as supervisor of the Telephone service in McLeod.

Merlyn then asked me what ever became of my faithful friend Betty Wilkins. They were surprised to hear that she was head doctor at the Famous Veterans Hospital in Waco. She had a taxi drive her down for the later part of the meeting. Betty seems to be a wise girl for her only patients are men.

After visiting with everyone I decided I must be going back home to Heavenly Grove, a beautiful spot west of Texarkana. I know my little son, James, will be home from school soon and my husband will be returning from the very important work he is now doing.

At that time I worked at the... and Betty Howard both... the... of the... for... to be... around... still... last...

SENIOR CLASS

Paul Liles wishes to bequeath his position as senior class president to Helen Jones since she is capably fitted for the job.

Dorothy Terry is willing her naturally curly hair to Ellon Long who needs it so badly.

To Lorene Long goes some of Helen Miller's shiftlessness as Lorene is just a little too industrious sometimes.

Joyce Terry has been willed a few of Velma Adcock's excess pounds of weight and we all know she needs them.

Billy James Robinson wills Lowell Wicks his tight blue jeans because they are such good friends.

Katy Jean Wade wills Ruth Gardner a few of her freckles as she thinks a slight sprinkling would become Ruth's red hair very much.

Sarah Land wills her position of being the only "preacher's daughter" in the senior class to Evelyn Wall who has coveted it for so long.

Charles Gryder wishes to leave some of his knowledge to Casey Wall since he thinks Casey might need it to graduate.

Neaveleane Hilliard wills her serene quietness to Merlene Bond who needs it so much.

Barrie Fay Walton wills her ability for having a date every night to Stella Eubanks who will probably need it after Billy James leaves for college.

Billy Ray Browning wills his quiet manner to William Long who never seems to be able to keep his mouth shut.

Inez Wilcox wants Dewey Hughes to inherit her jolly manner and wonderful personality because he is so sour and needs part of her merry manner.

Merlyn Waites wishes that Jimmie Sue Peacock would have as much trouble staying caught up in Typing II as she has always had.

Christine Sanders, of the small and delicate figure, wishes to will her figure to Dorothy Tollerson.

Thelma Adcock wills her quietness in class to Austin Lewis who seems to be always asking questions.

Betty Davis wishes Johnny Walker to acquire her ability to wiggle out of hard lessons since Johnny never seems to quite make it when he is trying to miss one.

To Junior Hughes goes Annie Hill's basketball playing ability, not that he needs it.

Ruby Holland Tollerson wills her impatience in waiting to get married to Irene Waters since we all know that it would just take one thing for her to get hitched.

Billy Browning wills his place on the Longhorn team to Bill Law. We sincerely hope Bill will take advantage of this opportunity.

Annie Margaret Hill wills her ability to type for all the teachers to Alva Wall.

Charles Gryder wills to Max McLeod his football playing technique for the class of '49 so that even if McLeod doesn't have a Gryder playing the Gryder technique will still be in action.

Thelma Adcock wills her first cousin from Louisiana to Howard Crow.

Betty Wilkins wills her babyishness to Juanita Dortch.

Betty Howard wills Dorothy Petty her ability to catch her man. Maybe Dorothy will get hers someday.
