Annual Arrivals

Flag Presentation

That will be $6, buddy.

The culmination of many months work, the yearbooks arrived on March 29. The Bicentennial theme was carried out quite effectively and was well accepted.

This is amazing.

Times are HARD!

Three Stooges

March 29, 1976

Who are you looking at?

I'd never tell!

No excitement shown!

Hey, Slick, what's happenin'?

Paul having ups and downs.

Same ole' thang!

Student Council Election

Anthony spoke on behalf of a friend.

Will you please give me your vote?
Student Council campaign speeches were given on April 1,
1976.

Bobby's swan song.

I promise to faithfully record . . .

Vote for honesty, integrity . . .

Move those notes a little closer, Ronnie.

Serious campaign promises.

I will handle your money wisely.

Elected as officers for the 1976-77 school year were: John Law, President; Cindi Law, Vice-President; Cissy Akin, Secretary; Dawn Gillespie, Treasurer; and Ronnie Buffington, Parliamentarian.

Cheerleader Tryouts

Cheerleader tryouts for both junior high and senior high were held on May 10, 1976. The girls were judged by a panel of experts and were selected on the basis of appearance, neatness, smile, voice projection, poise, spirit, enthusiasm, and precision of movement.

Winners in the junior high division were Terri Shafer, Angie Elliott, Cherie Land, Robyn Fagan, Ginger Berry, and Cathy Bemis.

Elected senior high cheerleaders were Sharon White, Cissy Akin, Dawn Gillespie, Pam Page, Carolyn Cook, and Karen Brown. Pam Page was selected head cheerleader by vote of those elected.

Ready . . . okay?

Fights like a girl.

Ready for take-off.

Wake up, Deanna

Are your glasses slipping, Robyn?

Cissy's swan dive.

*They missed
I can't dive
Cissy*

Junior-Senior Banquet

Fill that nut cup, Sharon.

Melony lends a hand.

Moonlight? and roses.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was an event of May 7, at the Sheraton Inn in Texarkana. The theme was "Moonlight and Roses." The decorations were beautiful, and those Juniors who did the decorating had a good time preparing the banquet room for their honored guests, the Seniors.

Gary shows he's nuts.

Teacher lib

Antonio Rose

He's not working.

Junior-Senior Banquet

What was that slimy thing I just put in my mouth.

Who spiked the tea?

Bread and water.

Okay! Let's eat.

What some people do for a free meal.

Who cares?

Elementary Olympics

The second annual elementary olympics for grades K-6 were held in May. There were two major divisions: one for K-3 and one for grades 4-6. There was competition in running, jumping, throwing baseballs and footballs, running obstacle courses, running sack races. There was even a tug-of-war in the younger division.

Future star.

Through the tube.

Rough landing.

Mrs. Linda Spigner was coordinator for the 1976 olympics, and she did a terrific job in getting things organized.

Among the children, there were many smiles and a few tears: a great deal of joy and a few disappointments

Kindergarten pulls it through.

Which way to a service station?

But these olympics helped the children to grow not only physically, but emotionally and socially as well.

We're looking forward to Olympics 1977.

Magnificent Six.

Little Shots

Peace brother.

How would you like to swing?

Justice of the Peace.

Kindergarten in "Fashion 77."

You've got to be kidding!

He went thataway.

Elementary 50's Day

Some of the cute contestants.

Invisible Queen!!!

The winner?

Mrs. Eitel looks like she's had a hard day.

The "Prez" speaks.

Eighth Grade Play

Don't you think your legs might be a little long, Clay?

Mr. Kotter and Barbarino
Tim and Teddy

The Eighth Grade Play was presented on May 13, 1976. Mrs. Mollie Jackson was in charge of the presentation.

The Sweathogs

Proceeds from the play were used to help to defray the expenses of the eighth grade graduation and reception.

The next heavy-weight champion.

The End.

FFA Livestock Projects

Greg showed his animal at the Junior Livestock Show.

FFA Sweetheart Sharon White presented a ribbon to Mike Dastillion during the annual project show held in May.

Bunnies shown in project show.

Greg Fagan was also a winner.

Mitchell's Grand Champion Rabbit.

High School

"Mixed Emotions"

No comment.

Grins, smiles, giggles, and laughs . . .

Graduates of '76

Good bye, Marty.

Off to College.

Moment of Triumph

The big day finally arrived. Karen Ray was valedictorian, Jimmy Mahone was salutatorian. Dr. Carlton Robardy from TC was the speaker.

Superintendent's Message

M. L. Barron

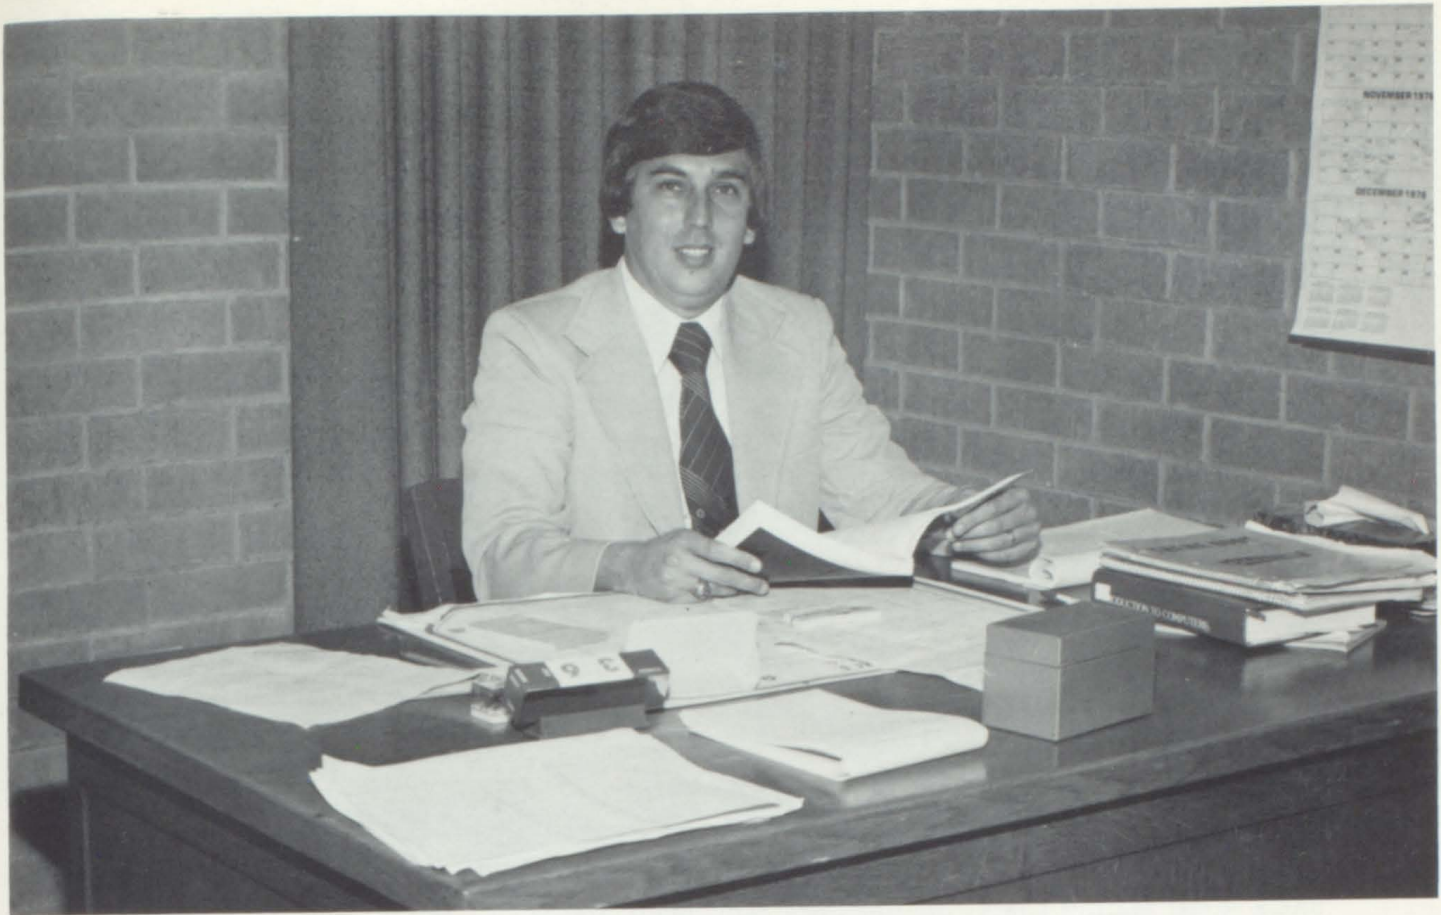

To the students, faculty, employees, and patrons of the Redwater Independent School District:
I would like to express my appreciation for the fine cooperation of everyone during the 1976-77 school year.
As our school system grows and changes, many demands are made of everyone connected with the school.
Without hard work and cooperation from all, very little could have been accomplished.

The annual staff is to be commended for the publication of the 1977 Dragon. It can be kept and cherished as a photographic record of the 1976-77 school year.

Sincerely yours,

M. L. BARRON
